

Achieving Effective Early Recovery and Resilience Programming in Syria

An SRI greenhouse training program in Northeast Syria

Official Side Event to the Brussels VII Conference

Please join the Syria Resilience Initiative (SRI) and the United Kingdom's Foreign Commonwealth and Development Office (FCDO) for an open discussion on how effective early recovery can build self-reliance for Syrians and decrease dependency on emergency humanitarian assistance.

We will look at two significant areas of concern raised by stakeholders in relation to resilience programming in Syria: Collaboration with local stakeholders and the Promotion of gender equality.
