

Supporting the future of Syria and the region

Brussels Conferences

BRUSSELS VI CONFERENCE SIDE EVENT:

Health and the impact of the socio-economic crisis in Syria

6 May 2022

Time

10:00 – 11:30 CET/Cairo time

Nearly one out of three Syrians are internally displaced today, with limited access to health care and other basic services. Syria's protracted socio-economic crisis is also pushing millions more people into deeper poverty and increased vulnerability to multiple health threats.

EVENT SPEAKERS

Dr Ahmad Al-Mandhari

Regional Director, WHO Regional Office for Eastern Mediterranean

Multilateral partnerships to sustain resilience and promote health

Dr Khalida Bouzar

Assistant Secretary-General, Assistant Administrator and Regional Director for Arab States, UNDP

Socio-economic impact of Syrian crisis: 11 years on

Mr Luca Maestriperi

Director, Italian Agency for Development Cooperation (AICS)

Italy's contribution to mitigating the impact of Syria's socio-economic crisis: a comprehensive approach

Dr Mazen Kuara

Country Director, Syrian American Medical Society

Health care status and resource constraints in Northwest Syria

Dr Mike Ryan

Executive Director, Health Emergencies Programme, WHO Headquarters

Beyond the crisis in Syria

Mr Tarik Jasarevic

WHO media spokesperson

MODERATOR

Join us for this panel discussion with Q&A that will focus on new multilateral partnerships and actions needed now to revitalize Syria's severely degraded healthcare system.

REGISTER HERE